

Join our patron Wendy Ackerman at 1000 Women Luncheon and UNiTE against domestic violence and abuse!

“Guard arrested for allegedly sexually assaulting 45 primary school girls.” - Media24

“Ex-fiancée of alleged Siam Lee Murderer sounded warning seven months ago.” - Sunday Tribune

“I was sold into Sex Slavery.” - The Guardian

“Another brutal teen murder rocks Bredasdorp!” - Daily Voice

These shocking events and statistics are not new to us. Every time we read a newspaper or turn on the television we are battered by escalating levels of abuse towards women and girls occurring in our communities daily. We need all South Africans to stand together and speak out against crime.

We believe when women have access to skills, knowledge, and resources they can help create solutions for themselves and those around them. The past 15 years, we have partnered with NPOs and invested in over 700 women-led organisations to support their communities and advocate against gender-based violence.

Since 2004, we have been mobilizing 1000 women to UNiTE against Domestic Violence, rape, and abuse annually. This initiative started in Cape Town and has now extended its reach all around the world. You are invited to join the 13th event in Cape Town on 10th May 2018.

Don't miss out!

This once-a-year event is a luncheon that will take place at the Cape Town International Convention Centre on 10th May 2018. You will enjoy inspiring speakers, wonderful entertainment, goody bag, and fruitful networking opportunities.
